File No. 192-07

Subject.

Intended tour of the Swamigalu of the Kudli Sri Sringeri matt at Kudli in the Shimoga Taluk. & the honors to be shewn to him

From

Subba Bhatta, Agent of the Matt.

Petition No. 4942, Dated 6th June 1908.

Ref. Ni

The accompanying × is an application from Subba Bhatta, Agent of the Kudli Sri Sringeri Matt at Kudli in the Shimoga Taluk. The Agent says that the Swamigalu, during his present tour, intends coming to Bangalore, ~~Ka~~ and staying there for about 4 or 6 days and thence proceeding to Mysore. He further says that he would communicate, the ~~correspondence~~ exact date of the Swamigalu's arrival at those places, in due course, and requests that in the meantime, the Military authorities be written to do to detail the usual of Silledars, Military Sepoys and bandsmen and also Police Constables to receive him at Bangalore, and that the needful arrangements may be made for his accommodation and for the first day's Bhiksha at Govt. cost, at that place. He also requests that, on his arrival at Mysore, the Swamigalu may be received with all the honors shown to that Matt in the year 1850, in pursuance of the Ayakattu Pattu.

In this connection, the file re the grant of honors to the Swamigalu of the Sri Yedinaya Matt at Melkote is respectfully submitted. The orders of H. H. the Maharaja passed on the Office Note on that file, may perhaps throw some light on the question of granting the Military Escort and the first day's Bhiksha asked for in the present application from the Agent of the Swamigalu of the Kudli Sringeri Matt.

No. 342 dated 3rd August 1909

Requests the forwardal of the original papers relating to the honors to be allowed to the Sri Kudli Smiţeri Swamigalu.

From the same.

No 8, dated 14th August 1909.

Forwards the papers called for as desired.

Under Secretary's order.

If the matt has not specified the honors in claims at Bangalore, ask them to specify now.

The matt has specified the honors, and they are as detailed at the top of page 2 of the Note.

Subsl. Recently an order has been passed fixing Rs 75/- as the amount to which the Kudli Smiţeri Swamigalu is entitled for the first days Pattakara.

Subsl. Vide the Secretary's Note dt 9/8/09 The application was presented in June 1908; but as not forwarded as the Swami did not, from Viest Bangalore to Mysore then. The Asst re- minded me in July last further action has been taken.

The honors to the Swami at Bangalore and Mysore have to be settled. As regards Mysore the may, in accordance with the late Highness's order in the Puttaji Matt case, ask the Swami to settle the matter through the Officer in charge of the Palace Establishments. In Bangalore the Swami claims the following honors:— Ista Kapal (2) escort of Sawars, and Barr sepoys and Police (3) Military band (4) First day's Biksha. There are no records to show whether the Swami ever before visited Bangalore and if so what honors were accorded them. The amount of first day's Biksha in the case of this Matt has since been settled as Rs 75/-

As regards the others I shall place before the Dewan and Councillors the papers necessary for settlement of the question. I beg to invite reference to my note in the Vyasaroya Matt case which, I believe, deals fully with the claims of Matts for honors - The file put up for reference in that case - Uttaradi Matt file, Yetiraja Matt file, and Sivaganga Matt file, are also put up herewith for reference. A reference to the honors of the Sringeri Matt does not appear to be necessary.

Palace Office will be useful in settling the status of this Math. Paper X No 2 is an original document obtained from the Palace Vansavali Sheristedar describing the events that occured when the Swami visited Mysore in 1851. It shews that the Swami had a Barr escort and band and that a salute of 11 guns was fired. This is corrobarated by paper No 6, which is a report from the Kille Kutcheri. Sowars are not explicitly referred to. 152 ——— Submitted to Dewan Mysore for Commandant Amb Murugesa

I believe that the honours to be shown in Mysore will be settled according to ~~the~~ Manual by order of H.H. the Maharaja.

There is no doubt that this Matha enjoyed very high Consideration & had the honour of adda - Palki &c. This claim has been refused in another an order recently passed and is not ~~sought~~ sought to be revived

The first day's bhiksha is settled at 75 Rs.

I am not sure whether it is expedient to grant the honour of guns in Bangalore city, as there is no Manúl therefor in favour of this Swami.

Istakapal, Escort of Sawars & Sepoys, and Military band — in these respects, this Matha may be treated as equal to that of Sivaganga or perhaps a little above it. An escort of 6 or 12 Silledars, a Sepoy guard (the minimum number usual) & band may be sent. To the Sivaganga Matha, I believe only a Silledar escort was provided.

I concur (this 7/9/10)
